

The Parkway Vistas at Anvaya Cove

Artist's Perspectives

Set in gently rolling terrain of about 15.2 hectares, the Parkway Vistas at Anvaya Cove is elevated by about 45 to 80 meters above sea level, affording residents with a wide range of views – the South China Sea, Mt. Silangin, Mt. Natib, the Zambales mountain range, and of the fairways.

Natural buffers or nature preserves surround the neighborhood, with about 3 hectares to be solely dedicated to parks and open spaces.

One of the most expansive neighborhoods located on the southern point of Anvaya Cove, the Parkway Vistas is a neighborhood of continuous greenery. It is also adjacent to hole number 4 - Accuracy.

About 40% of the development is dedicated to open spaces and parks and is accentuated further by the surrounding fairways.

The gently rolling terrain and generous open spaces blend the backdrop of each future home to a most welcoming vista of sun, sand, sea and fairways.

The neighborhood features interconnecting bike trails and foot paths to promote an active lifestyle for the residents.
